July was a notable month which included the uncertainty from the election result which has impacted passenger numbers due to increased rates of consumer and business uncertainty. There was also some impact from poor weather that resulted in flight cancellations.

Virgin Australia announced that they will be retired their 98 seater E190 aircraft. As a result, their Sydney-Mackay flight will end in December 2016 because this flight is operated by E190s.

Annual passengers on the retained routes is showing a stable performance since July last year.
